CONFERS Articles of Collaboration

PURPOSE

These Articles of Collaboration (“AoC”) are entered into, as of May 18, 2018, to establish the Consortium for Execution of Rendezvous and Servicing Operations (CONFERS).

CONFERS will establish an independent, self-sustaining industry forum to advocate and promote on-orbit satellite maintenance, servicing, and rendezvous operations by collaborating to research, develop, and publish voluntary, consensus technical and safety standards, and engaging with governments on policy and oversight of satellite servicing activities.

To fulfill its mission, CONFERS will recruit a broad array of members from satellite original equipment manufacturers, satellite operators, service providers, insurers and underwriters, and engage other stakeholders from industry, academia, and governments. The process will be fully collaborative and will include dedicated outreach activities to engage the global commercial satellite community.

DEFINITIONS

HEREINAFTER the following definitions apply:

Affiliate means, with respect to a specified Member that is a signatory to the AoC, any corporation, company, partnership, joint venture and/or firm which now or hereafter controls, is controlled by or is under common control of such specified Member. For purposes of this definition, "control" shall mean (i) in the case of corporate entities, direct or indirect ownership of at least 50% of the stock or shares entitled to vote for the election of directors; and (ii) in the case of non-corporate entities, direct or indirect ownership of at least 50% of the equity interest with the power to direct the management and policies of such non-corporate entities.

Charter Consortium Member(s) means those Consortium Members as set forth in Exhibit A that comprised the Formation Committee of the CONFERS, which developed these Articles.

CONFERS means the Consortium for Execution of Rendezvous and Servicing Operations, which is made up of Members from industry, academia, non-profit organizations, and not-for-profit organizations pursuant to these Articles.

CONFERS Secretariat refers to the organizations acting on behalf of the CONFERS (not as an agent of any individual Member) to execute and administer the CONFERS program of work as approved initially by the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), and in the future by the CONFERS Executive Committee. At the time of CONFERS formation, the Secretariat is comprised of Advanced Technology International (ATI), Secure World Foundation (SWF), Space Infrastructure Foundation (SIF) and the University of Southern California Space Engineering Research Center (USC SERC).

CONFERS Technology refers to ideas, specifications, software, information, materials, technology and/or other information or materials that are created, conceived or developed, whether or not reduced to practice, under any phase or portion of the services and/or work performed hereunder.

Formation Committee means the committee that prior to election of an Executive Committee will represent the common, collective interests of those companies and organizations that have expressed their desire and intent to form a consortium, and to guide the efforts of the represented organizations in rapidly forming the CONFERS and commencing the standards development process. Until such time that the Executive Committee is elected and seated, the Formation Committee will serve as the Executive Committee as described in the AoC.

Member or Members means respectively an individual CONFERS Member organization or the CONFERS Member organizations collectively that are signatories to the CONFERS AoC.

ARTICLE 1: OBJECTIVES

As of the Effective Date of these Articles, the Members hereby agree to create the CONFERS. Through collaboration with carefully chosen industry and government space experts and stakeholders, both domestic and international, the consortium aims to benefit the entire on-orbit servicing industry by building common understanding between developers, operators, customers, investors, insurers, and government policy makers while protecting commercial participants' financial and strategic interests. The standards are intended to be broad enough to allow individual companies to pursue their own implementations of these standards to suit their individual businesses, while assuring that the implementations reflect best practices for operational safety.

Membership

As of the Effective Date of the AoC, the Members are those Charter Members listed in Exhibit A. The CONFERS Secretariat will maintain a current membership list and will make it available on a CONFERS website as additional members join the consortium. The intent of the Members is that the CONFERS will be open to and include Members from industry, academic research institutions, and non-profit and not-for-profit organizations having direct and material interest in participating in the standards development process. The CONFERS will admit additional Members in accordance with the provisions contained in the AoC. Any Members, regardless of when they join the CONFERS, shall enjoy the same rights and incur the same obligations as any other Member hereunder.

Membership may be granted to U.S., multi-national and foreign firms or institutions. The CONFERS Executive Committee (or the CONFERS Formation Committee if the Executive Committee has not yet been seated) shall approve all applications for membership based upon a majority vote of the Executive Committee Members. Membership in the CONFERS will become effective upon approval of the membership application. The Executive Committee will review the status of members periodically to ensure they are in good standing as defined below.

Membership Requirements

The Parties agree that membership in the CONFERS shall be granted only to firms or institutions that:

- a) Can clearly demonstrate in their membership application that they have a direct and material interest in providing input to the standards development process;
- b) Will contribute their respective talents and resources to the CONFERS for activities such as periodic meeting attendance, committee and subcommittee participation, and other consultation and/or services as may be appropriate;
- c) Are not more than 50% owned/controlled by their respective government; and
- d) For US companies, are not suspended or debarred from contracting with or receiving funds from the United States Government.

During the period of time when CONFERS is receiving funding from the US Government, the CONFERS Secretariat will notify the Government of the addition or deletion of Members quarterly and upon request. In addition, the CONFERS Secretariat will make appropriate filings under the National Cooperative Research and Production Act.

Membership Tiers

The CONFERS will establish a tiered membership structure, with annual dues payments commensurate with the benefits accorded to each tier, as described in Table 1 immediately below. The Executive Committee will determine the timing for collecting initial dues payments.

Table 1. CONFERS Membership Tiers and Respective Privileges and Requirements

Membership Dues

The Executive Committee will develop and approve a dues structure commensurate with the activities and responsibilities required to achieve the goals of the Consortium. The intent of

CONFERS Articles of Collaboration

CONFERS will be to begin collecting dues no earlier than 1 November 2019. The Executive Committee may choose to have members provide a “good faith” fee at the end of their first year of membership. Members also may be asked to provide non-monetary contributions, such as hosting meetings or providing subject matter expertise, during the course of Consortium activities.

Affiliates.

Affiliates of approved CONFERS members, as defined in the Definition section on page 2 of these Articles may apply and be approved for membership in the tier in Table 1 above that aligns with the privileges and requirements pertaining to that Affiliate. Only the parent organization may pursue election to the Consortium Executive Committee, and only the parent organization may vote on issues presented to the full membership for a vote.

Obligations to be a Member in Good Standing.

- a) Current (no greater than 60 days past due) on membership dues;
- b) Current (no greater than 60 days past due) on non-monetary commitments, as may be required by the membership tier.

Only Sustaining and Contributing Members in good standing will be permitted to vote on matters presented to the CONFERS for action.

ARTICLE 2: CONSORTIUM GOVERNANCE

Formation Committee

During the Consortium start-up period of CONFERS, a Formation Committee will convene to guide the establishment and initial rapid ramp-up of the Consortium. Representatives from the CONFERS Secretariat and the Charter Member companies (Exhibit A) will comprise the Formation Committee. Following ratification of these Articles of Collaboration the Formation Committee will elect a Chair from its Charter Member companies. A Formation Committee Charter will govern the responsibilities of the committee. At some point in the first six to twelve months after start-up of the consortium, when a base of members representing all categories have joined, the Formation Committee will dissolve and transition to a leadership structure led by an Executive Committee as described below.

Executive Committee

Subject to the terms and conditions stated herein, the Consortium will be managed and governed by an Executive Committee, which is empowered to determine all policy, business, financial, legal and technical issues and to represent the Consortium and the Parties in reporting progress, in negotiating and in transacting business for CONFERS. Specifically, and without limitation, the Executive Committee is empowered to redirect the research, redefine the tasks and goals of the Parties.

The affairs of the CONFERS shall be governed by an Executive Committee of seven elected representatives. These seats shall be elected from CONFERS Member organizations with participation rights in the Executive Committee in the numbers specified below, each to serve for a term of two years. Additionally, the CONFERS Secretariat shall provide two permanent members on the Executive Committee, one representing the consortium operations activities (Advanced Technology International, in this case) and one representing the technical operations activities (Secure World Foundation, in this case).

The Executive Committee shall be comprised of:

- a) five sustaining members;
- b) two contributing members;
- c) one representative from Advanced Technology International; and

- d) one representative from Secure World Foundation

Four of the initial roster of elected Executive Committee Members will have a one-time three-year term to provide continuity during CONFERS startup, after which the Executive Committee will establish an annual rotation cycle of approximately one-half of the elected committee Members.

The Executive Committee will assume responsibility for implementing firewalls or such other measures to protect competitively sensitive information of the Members and to avoid and mitigate potential organizational conflicts of interest. The oversight of such duties may be transferred to the CONFERS Secretariat. Any person serving on the Executive Committee may be relieved of his/her position at any time for cause, or for no cause, by a two-thirds vote of the CONFERS Executive Committee Members. All decisions of the Executive Committee shall require a simple majority vote of the committee.

Executive Committee Quorum, Voting and Proxy Protocol

The Executive Committee may conduct business at all meetings where five (5) or more of the nine (9) members are present, providing at least four (4) of the (7) elected members are present.

The Executive Committee shall dispose of business issues presented to it by a vote of all Executive Committee members present at the meeting where the issues are presented and discussed. Only those individuals actually present at the meeting may vote. Executive Committee meetings may be conducted by conference call, and voting shall be accomplished only by those members participating on the conference call. Voting on all issues presented to the Executive Committee for decision shall be deemed approved by a simple majority of all Executive Committee members participating in the vote. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to approve the following actions:

- a) Approve draft standards forwarded to the Executive Committee by the CONFERS sustaining and contributing members;
- b) Approve admission of new members to the Consortium; and
- c) Approve the creation and dissolution of committees to assist the Consortium in conducting its business affairs

The Executive Committee may choose to require a super-majority vote to approve certain business issues presented to it for decision. Those issues requiring a super-majority vote to approve shall be identified in advance of the meeting at which such vote will be conducted. Such issues may include, but not be limited to:

- (a) Revise the Articles of Collaboration;
- (b) Delegate authority of Executive Committee to the Financial Service Provider and Chairman of the Executive Committee;
- (c) Approve annual program plan for funding;
- (d) Admit new Parties in accordance with Article 4.

Should a member of the Executive Committee be unavailable to participate in a scheduled Executive Committee meeting or conference call, that member may designate an individual from his or her organization to serve as that member's proxy for the meeting. Executive Committee members who wish to be represented by a proxy must inform the CONFERS Secretariat 24 hours in advance of the scheduled meeting regarding the need for a proxy.

Election of the Executive Committee

Elections to replace the Executive Committee members whose terms are expiring, or to fill a position that becomes vacant prior to the normal term expiration, will be conducted one time per year, typically in conjunction with the annual General Assembly membership meeting. The CONFERS Secretariat will preside over the elections. The Secretariat will solicit nominations for Executive Committee vacancies 60 days prior to each annual election cycle, citing incumbent Executive Committee members whose terms are expiring and any special organizational requirements for nominees. Incumbent Executive Committee members may be nominated and re-elected to successive terms, provided the membership tier of the organization they represent remains unchanged. Any member in the Sustaining Member and Contributing Member tiers may nominate an individual from that tier to serve on the Executive Committee. All nominees must be employed by a “Member in Good Standing” organization as defined in the AoC. A Member Organization making such nomination shall briefly describe the qualifications of the nominee for this position. The Executive Committee, or some other committee the Executive Committee may assign, will review all nominee applications to determine if they meet nomination requirements. If, during their term, an Executive Committee member is no longer willing or able to serve on the Executive Committee, or if an Executive Committee member’s organization withdraws from the Consortium, the vacated position will remain unfilled until the next general election process. Upon successful completion of the election process, the new Executive Committee member will serve for the remainder of the term for the vacancy that was created.

Voting Procedure

The voting procedure for Executive Committee elections shall be by electronic ballot, by one authorized representative from the Member Organization voting. The Secretariat will provide ballots to Member Organizations electronically, which must be completed and returned within 30 days. Each Member organization will be provided only one ballot for their organization. Each Member Organization that is a “Member in Good Standing” may cast a single ballot, selecting only the number of candidates in each category as specified on the ballot. In cases where more than one ballot is received from a Member Organization, the Secretariat will be responsible for determining the valid ballot. The Secretariat will tabulate ballots immediately following the close of balloting. The nominees in each category with the highest number of votes shall be elected to serve on the Executive Committee. The Secretariat will announce the results of the election via email to the Membership.

Executive Committee Officers

The Executive Committee Officers shall include a Chair, a Vice-Chair, and a Treasurer, to be selected by the Executive Committee, and a Secretary and an Executive Director, provided by ATI and Secure World Foundation, respectively.

Chair. The Chair shall preside over all meetings of the Executive Committee, performing all duties customary to that office and supervising and controlling all of the affairs of the Executive Committee in accordance with policies and directives approved by the Executive Committee. The Chair shall not serve more than two successive terms. Beginning in October 2019, the Chair of the Executive Committee shall sign the management services agreement and subsequent modifications to the management services agreement with the CONFERS Secretariat as authorized by the Executive Committee.

Vice-Chair. The Vice-Chair shall act under the direction of the Chair and in the absence or disability of the Chair shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Chair. The Vice-Chair shall perform such other duties and have such other authority as the Executive Committee may from time-to-time prescribe by standing or special resolution, or as the Chair may from time-to-time provide, subject to the authority and the supervision of the Executive Committee. The Vice-Chair is authorized to sign the AoC and subsequent modifications to the AoC, in the absence of the Chair.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall act under the direction of the Chair as the financial representative responsible for making financial decisions and reviewing and approving all vouchers presented by the CONFERS Secretariat for payment beginning in October 2019. The Treasurer shall approve disbursement of CONFERS funds by the CONFERS Secretariat and shall render to the Chair and the Executive Committee, at its regular meetings, or when the Executive Committee so requires, an account of the CONFERS Secretariat's transactions and of the financial condition of the CONFERS.

CONFERS Articles of Collaboration

Subcommittees

The Executive Committee shall have the authority to form subcommittees comprised of representatives from Member organizations to advise the CONFERS, and if applicable, collaborate with the Government, on topics of special interest to the Members, including intellectual property, resolutions of organizational conflicts of interest and procurement integrity.

CONFERS Secretariat

The CONFERS Secretariat will coordinate all consortium management and technical operations undertaken in support of CONFERS objectives.

The CONFERS consortium manager will administer the business affairs under the direction of the Executive Committee as delineated below:

- a) Act as the administrative point of contact for the CONFERS under the AoC and any amendments hereto;
- b) Assist the Formation Committee/Executive Committee in establishing the governance structure for CONFERS;
- c) Together with the Executive Committee, take appropriate steps to avoid organizational conflicts of interest among the Members and to mitigate such conflicts if they cannot be avoided;
- d) Be responsible for obtaining signatures of the Members on any amendments to these Articles;
- e) Request nominations, prepare a slate of candidates for any open committee positions, provide notice of committee membership and membership changes to the Members, provide notice of the Executive Committee meetings and a request for agenda items to the Members, and provide notice of Member additions and deletions;
- f) Invoice, collect, and track membership dues/personnel commitments from Member Organizations; and
- g) Provide quarterly financial reports to the CONFERS Executive Committee.

The CONFERS Executive Director will organize and execute all technical project work of the CONFERS under direction of the Executive Committee. The Executive Director will:

- a) Serve as the single point of contact to the Members, the CONFERS Executive Committee, and, when required, to governments or their respective designees, for all technical issues related to standards development;
- b) Supervise all supporting research into the standards to be developed, refined or depreciated;
- c) Coordinate all external engagements with CONFERS members and stakeholders; and
- d) Coordinate interaction with various Standards Development Organizations as necessary to publish consensus standards developed through the CONFERS process.

ARTICLE 3: CONSORTIUM MANAGEMENT

Management of Consortium Funds

CONFERS shall operate on the funds provided by the Government under Contract No. HR011-18-C-0037, supplemented by funds derived from membership dues and other income streams CONFERS may develop over time. These funds will be deposited in an account that shall be administered by the CONFERS consortium manager to achieve the objectives approved by the Executive Committee. As the amount of government seed funding is reduced over time, the Executive Committee shall allocate sufficient CONFERS-generated funds to ensure the annual CONFERS program objectives can be fulfilled. Should additional CONFERS-generated funds, beyond those required to fulfill CONFERS objectives be available, the Executive Committee shall be authorized to disburse such funds for appropriate activities and services it deems consistent with achieving the objectives for which CONFERS was established. The CONFERS consortium manager will keep accurate records as to any such disbursements made.

CONFERS Articles of Collaboration

Budget Approval Process

Annually, beginning in October 2019, the CONFERS consortium manager will prepare and submit a Consortium Operations budget for the upcoming year to the Executive Committee for review and approval. This budget will address the entire scope of activities required to be accomplished in support of CONFERS objectives for that program year, the amount of Government funding that will be provided in that program year toward accomplishing those activities (if any), and the additional CONFERS-generated funding that is required. The Consortium Operations budget will describe and allocate the total amount of estimated funding needed to fully complete all the requirements for the year and will include the current CONFERS funding balance and projected CONFERS revenue for the coming year. The Executive Committee shall review and approve this budget, documenting such approval in the Executive Committee meeting minutes. Should any changes to the annual activities and/or the associated budget be required, the Executive Committee shall approve the changes before they can be implemented. The CONFERS Secretariat shall not be obligated to perform tasks in an approved budget if the Consortium has insufficient funding.

Payment

Beginning in October 2019, CONFERS shall pay the CONFERS consortium manager as compensation for the performance of the services based on the approved budget. Payments shall be made by the CONFERS Treasurer monthly upon receipt and review of accurate invoices within 30 days of receipt and verification of the accuracy of invoices.

Financial and Status Reporting

The CONFERS consortium manager shall provide the Executive Committee regular status and financial reporting for work performed on the approved budget as well as overall CONFERS current and projected revenue.

ARTICLE 4: EFFECTIVE DATE

The Articles shall first become effective on May 18, 2018, which corresponds to the date that the CONFERS Charter Members listed in Exhibit A voted to approve the Articles.

ARTICLE 5: TERM

The Articles shall continue for a period of five years from the Effective Date of the Articles. The annual program year for CONFERS operational and financial activities is defined as October 1 through September 30. The Articles shall continue in full force and effect for the life of the CONFERS. Articles which by their express terms or by necessary implication apply for periods of time other than as specified in this Article shall be given effect for such period of time, notwithstanding this Article. If the Executive Committee agrees, the term of the AoC may be extended through an amendment of the AoC.

Renewal

Prior to the expiration date of the AoC, the Members agree to enter into good faith negotiations to establish either an extension to the AoC, a follow-on agreement, or a consortium disestablishment plan.

Survival

Notwithstanding the above provisions, the Member's rights and obligations with respect to specific intellectual property agreements by and between CONFERS and the Member(s) shall survive any expiration or termination of the AoC.

Withdrawal

Termination of Membership. Membership in the CONFERS shall automatically terminate under the following conditions:

- a) By written agreement of the Members,
- b) Upon a CONFERS Executive Committee's decision to terminate operations when the objectives for which CONFERS was created have been satisfied.

Voluntary Withdrawal

A Member may voluntarily withdraw from the CONFERS at any time by providing 30 days written notice of withdrawal to the Executive Committee.

Involuntary Withdrawal

If a Member materially breaches any material warranty, term or condition of the AoC (including failure to pay annual dues or provide the required personnel augmentation) and fails to remedy such material breach within 90 days after receipt of notice of such material breach from another Member and/or the Executive Committee, the Executive Committee shall have the right to cause the involuntary withdrawal of such Member, such withdrawal to be effective immediately upon delivery of a notice from the Executive Committee to such Member indicating their election to cause such involuntary withdrawal to occur.

Outstanding Financial Obligations of a Member

In the event of the withdrawal of a Member pursuant to this Article, such Member's financial obligations to the consortium shall remain in full force and effect until all outstanding obligations to the consortium are satisfied according to the AoC.

Rights of a Member

After the effective date of withdrawal of a Member, such Member shall cease to have any rights as a Member under the AoC.

Dissolution

The CONFERS may be dissolved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee. Upon dissolution or other termination of the CONFERS, all remaining assets of the CONFERS, after payment in full of all its debts, obligations, and necessary final expenses, or after the making of adequate provision thereof, shall be distributed as follows:

- a) All unobligated Government funds shall be returned to the Government funding sponsor.
- b) All non-Government funds shall be disbursed to such tax-exempt organizations (with purposes similar to those of the CONFERS) as shall be chosen by the then existing Executive Committee of the CONFERS. In the event the then existing Executive Committee of CONFERS cannot achieve a two-thirds (2/3) vote on the tax-exempt organization(s), the funds shall be distributed to the U.S. Treasury.

ARTICLE 6: AUDIT

The CONFERS consortium manager shall be the single point of contact for supporting audits required by the Government or other external authority. Such audits shall not include criteria for audit access to a Member Organization's business.

ARTICLE 7: REPRESENTATIONS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Each Member represents and certifies that:

- a) It is free to enter into the AoC;
- b) In so doing, it will not violate any other agreement to which it is a party; and
- c) It has taken all action necessary and required to authorize the execution and delivery of the AoC and the performance of its obligations under the AoC.

ARTICLE 8: LIABILITY

To the extent authorized under individual state law for a state-owned Member, each Member acknowledges that it shall be responsible for any loss, cost, damage, claim, or other charge that arises out of or is caused by the actions of that Member or its employees or agents to the extent of its negligence. No Member shall be liable for any loss, cost, damage, claim, or other charge that arises out of or is caused by the actions of any other Member or its employees or agents. Joint and several liabilities will not attach to the Members; no Member is responsible for the actions of any other Member. The Members agree that in no event will consequential, incidental, special, exemplary or punitive damages be applicable or awarded with respect to any dispute that may arise between or among the Members in connection with the AoC. In performing any obligation created under the AoC, the Members agree that each Member is acting as an independent party and not as an agent of any other Member.

ARTICLE 9: LIMITATION ON DISCLOSURE

Except as expressly provided for in the AoC, no one Member has the obligation to disclose to another Member any market data or plans except as such information is made publicly available. The Members will not exchange competitively sensitive information with one another, including, without limitation, proprietary cost or pricing data. The Members will not exchange competitively sensitive information regarding projected sales or profitability.

Except for the disclosure of basic information regarding the CONFERS (i.e., membership, purpose and a general description of the technical work), formal written approval by the CONFERS Executive Committee is required for any specific publicity or advertising relative to the AoC.

ARTICLE 10: INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS

The relationship of the Members established by the AoC is that of independent contractors, and nothing contained in the AoC shall be construed to (i) give any of the Members hereto the power to direct or control the day-to-day activities of another Member hereto, (ii) constitute the Members as partners, joint ventures, co-owners or otherwise as participants in a joint or common undertaking, or (iii) allow any of the Members hereto to create, discharge or assume any obligation on behalf of another Member hereto for any purpose whatsoever. Each Member retains the right to engage independent research and activities that may compete with, or be contrary to, the goals of the CONFERS.

ARTICLE 11: FILING WITH U.S. ATTORNEY GENERAL AND FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Members agree that notification of the establishment of the CONFERS (and subsequent addition or deletion of Members) shall be filed with the U.S. Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission by the CONFERS consortium manager on behalf of the Members in accordance with the provision of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act within 90 days of execution of the AoC, and will update such filings thereafter. The costs of this filing shall be borne by the CONFERS.

ARTICLE 12: INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Neither the Consortium or Consortium Members will receive any rights to a Member's Intellectual Property Rights under the AoC, nor are Members compelled to share Intellectual Property.

ARTICLE 13: NOTICES

Any notice or other communication required or permitted under the AoC shall be in writing and (i) personally delivered, (ii) mailed, postage prepaid, first class, certified mail, return receipt requested, (iii) sent, shipping prepaid, return receipt requested by national overnight courier service, or (iv) sent by electronic mail to the appropriate Member or Members in accordance with the terms of this provision. Any notice or other communication given by personal delivery shall be deemed given on the date personally delivered; any notice or other communication given by mail shall be deemed given four (4) days after the date deposited in the United States mail; and any notice or other communication given by national overnight courier service shall be deemed given on the next business day after being sent.

ARTICLE 14: DISPUTES

The Members recognize that disputes pertaining to certain matters may from time to time arise during the term of the AoC, which relate to a Member's rights and/or obligations hereunder or thereunder. It is the objective of the Members to establish procedures to facilitate the resolution of disputes arising under the AoC in an expedient manner by mutual cooperation and without resort to litigation. To accomplish this objective, the Members agree to follow the procedures set forth in this Article if and when a dispute arises under the AoC. However, if an organization can provide evidence that it is prohibited from entering into binding arbitration, the dispute resolution procedures will be negotiated on a case-by-case basis.

Dispute Resolution Representatives

In the event of disputes between the Members, including disputes among the Members' representatives to the Executive Committee which such representatives are unable to resolve, a Member seeking to resolve such dispute will, by written notice to the other, have such dispute referred to their respective executive officers designated below or their successors, for attempted resolution by good faith negotiations within fourteen (14) days after such notice is received. The designated officers are as follows:

- a) For the Member(s): Designated Senior Executive(s)
- b) For the CONFERS: a Panel appointed by the Executive Committee or delegation by the Executive Committee to the CONFERS consortium manager.

In the event the designated officers are not able to resolve such dispute, either Member may at any time after the fourteen (14) day period invoke the provisions of the Alternate Dispute Resolution provision below.

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Following settlement efforts pursuant to the procedures in this Article, any dispute, controversy or claims arising out of or relating to the validity, construction, enforceability or performance of the AoC, including disputes relating to alleged breach or to termination of the AoC, shall be settled by binding Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR") in the manner described below:

- a) ADR Request: If a Member intends to begin an ADR to resolve a dispute, such Member shall provide written notice (the "ADR Request") to the other Member informing such other Member of such intention and the issues to be resolved.
- b) Additional Issues: Within ten (10) business days after the receipt of the ADR Request, the other Member may, by written notice to the Member initiating ADR, add additional issues to be resolved.
- c) No ADR of Intellectual Property or Patent Issues: Disputes regarding the ownership of, and/or rights to Intellectual Property, including the scope, validity and enforceability of patents, shall not be subject to the ADR provision in this Article but rather submitted to a court of competent jurisdiction.

Arbitration Procedure

Any dispute or claim arising out of, or in connection with the AoC shall be finally settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the then current rules and procedures of the American Arbitration Association. The arbitration shall be conducted by three (3) arbitrators having experience with the issue under consideration, one (1) each to be appointed by the Members in dispute and a third being nominated by the two (2) arbitrators so selected or, if they cannot agree on a third arbitrator, by the President of the American Arbitration Association. Such arbitration will take place at a location agreeable to the Members who are parties to the dispute. If no agreement as to venue is reached within fifteen (15) business days of written notice that a Member seeks arbitration of a dispute, a majority of the Executive Committee shall choose the place of arbitration. The arbitrators shall apply the law of the state in which the dispute arose to the merits of any dispute or claim, without reference to rules of conflicts of laws. Judgment on any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Members agree that, any provision of applicable law notwithstanding, they will not request, and the arbitrators shall have no authority to award punitive or exemplary damages against any Member. Nothing in this Article shall limit a Member's right to seek injunctive relief with respect to a breach or threatened breach of the AoC.

ARTICLE 15: ASSIGNMENT

Neither the AoC nor any rights hereunder, in whole or in part, shall be assignable or otherwise transferable without the prior written consent of the CONFERS Executive Committee; which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. A Member may assign its rights and delegate its obligations (i) to any affiliate of such Member (although, in the event of any such assignment and delegation, the assigning Member shall remain primarily liable for its obligations hereunder) and (ii) to a purchaser of all or substantially all of the business of such Member to which the AoC relates by merger, sale of assets or otherwise. If the Member, after the assignment or purchase cannot meet the requirements for Consortium membership as called out in the AoC and the CONFERS Membership Agreement, the Member will be considered to have voluntarily withdrawn from the CONFERS in accordance with Article 4 herein.

ARTICLE 16: GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be interpreted by application of Delaware law without regard to its conflicts of law provisions. Where Member is a non-Delaware state governmental entity, this Section will be deemed to be deleted and replaced with the following, "Nothing in this Agreement is intended to cause Member to waive the legal immunities and defenses provided under its State enabling laws."

CONFERS Articles of Collaboration

ARTICLE 17: ENTIRE AGREEMENT

The AoC, including all Exhibits referred to herein, constitute the entire agreement of the Members and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions among the Members, whether oral or written, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

ARTICLE 18: INVALIDITY OF PROVISIONS

If any provision of the AoC is deemed to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provision will be deemed amended to conform to applicable laws of such jurisdiction so as to be valid and enforceable or, if it cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of the Members, it will be stricken and the remainder of the AoC will remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 19: TAX STATUS

The CONFERS has not been organized as a legal entity. The non-profit status of the CONFERS consortium manager will preclude any tax liability that might arise out of CONFERS' operations.

ARTICLE 20: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Amendments. No amendment or modification of the AoC shall be valid unless agreed to in writing by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the CONFERS Executive Committee membership. The Executive Committee may, at its discretion, refer certain proposed amendments to the full CONFERS membership for validation by a majority vote of the membership. All proposed amendments to the AoC shall be distributed to the Executive Committee Members at least 30 days prior to the proposed effective date.

Waiver. No waiver of any rights shall be effective unless agreed to in writing by the Member to be charged. Waiver by any Member of any breach or failure to comply with any provision of the AoC by another Member shall not be construed as, or constitute, a continuing waiver of such provision or a waiver of any other breach of or failure to comply with any other provision of the AoC.

Section Headings. The headings of the several sections of the AoC are intended for convenience of reference only and are not intended to be a part of, or to affect the meaning or interpretation of the AoC.

Compliance with Export Laws. All Members shall comply with all applicable national and international export control laws and regulations to which they are subject. Members are responsible for their own violations, and any such violations do not reflect on other members of CONFERS.

Use of Names. Neither any Member nor the CONFERS (including its affiliated entities) shall use the name, trademarks, other marks or logos of any other Member in any way, including but not limited to advertising, promotional, or sales literature, without prior written consent, in each and every instance; however, the CONFERS consortium manager can include Member's name in all published membership lists.
